NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Significant accounting policies

Average number of employees during the reporting period: 0

Basis of preparation

The interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Accounting Law and the Law on Annual Reports and Consolidated Annual Reports.

The profit or loss statement is classified using the function of expense method.

Accounting policies applied

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. The accounting and measurement methods have been applied consistently, and estimates have been made with due prudence.

Related parties

A related party is a person or a company that is related to the reporting Company.

A person, or a close relative of that person, is related to the Company if that person has control, joint control or significant influence over the Company, or if that person is a member of the management of the Company or of its parent company.

A company is related to the reporting Company if they belong to the same group of companies, as well as in cases where a person related to the reporting Company has control, joint control or significant influence over that company, or where that person is a member of the management of that company or of its parent company.

Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at acquisition cost less accumulated depreciation.

The acquisition cost of property, plant and equipment comprises the purchase price, non-deductible acquisition taxes and other costs directly attributable to the acquisition that are necessary to bring the asset to its location and to prepare it for use in accordance with its intended purpose.

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is calculated over the useful life of the asset using the straight-line method.

Gains or losses on the disposal of property, plant and equipment are recognised in the profit or loss statement of the respective reporting period. Costs that increase the useful life or the value of an item of property, plant and equipment are capitalised. Other repair and maintenance costs are recognised as expenses in the period in which they are incurred.

2. Statement of movements in intangible assets and property, plant and equipment

Item name	Intangible assets, EUR	Property, plant and equipment, EUR

At the end of the period	0	116
Carrying amount at the end of the reporting period	39200	1281

3. Receivables

Receivables are recognised at the amount initially recognised, less provisions established for doubtful receivables. Provisions are established in cases where the recovery of the full amount of the debt is doubtful. Debts are written off if their recovery is considered impossible.

4. Revenue recognition

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer and the amount of revenue can be measured reliably.

Revenue from the rendering of services is recognised according to the stage of completion of the service.

Interest income is recognised on a time-proportion basis.
